Raumati Women's Fellowship Service

This Sunday 21 May the Raumati Women's Fellowship are having their annual Special Project service. Guest speaker will be Mr Finn Cordwell, Wellington Community Organizer for the Living Wage movement. This will be followed by a special morning tea to which you are all warmly welcomed.

Following the service you are invited to give a donation towards the Special Projects. This year the N.Z. Project is The Living Wage Movement in Aotearoa N.Z. and the overseas Project is supporting the Tongan Community Development Trust to help communities recover from the damage caused by the volcanic eruption, the tsunami and the covid epidemic.

June Together Magazine

A reminder that anything for inclusion in this edition should please be sent to the office as soon as possible

Parish Anniversary Service

There will be a celebratory full combined service at 10am Raumati Church Sunday 11th June. Everyone is invited and the service will be followed by a shared finger food lunch, please bring a plate.

Parish Directory

We are updating the Parish Directory and will be printing new copies soon. If there are any changes which need to be made to your entry please could you let Fiona in the office know.
