New biography of Shirley Murray

KUP are proud to be hosting a book launch for Anne Manchester's new book of Shirley's life and legacy. This will be a very special event for our parish and everyone is invited to attend. Full details are overleaf.

A week of Prayer for World Peace

The annual Week of Prayer for World Peace, which countries around the world celebrate each year, is 13th to 20 October.

The booklets have prayers and thoughts on peace from different faith groups for each day of the week, and will, as usual, be available at Raumati and Waikanae Churches from this Sunday.

Please take one if you would like to use it in your private devotions. The booklet is also available to download/view in the Weekly Notices section on our kup.org.nz website

Public meeting about the proposed closure of Kenepuru Hospital After Hours service on Wednesday 9 October at 1pm in Raumati church hall

This meeting is open to everyone who could be affected by the closure of the after hours service and is hosted by Barbara Edmonds, MP for Mana.

It is an opportunity to hear details of the proposed change and also to express our community's opinions of the proposed change.
