Andrew Doubleday, Executive Officer of Uniting Churches of Aotearoa NZ

Andrew will be visiting our parish on Saturday, 8th July. Please join us for a special morning tea in the Meeting Room at 10 am to meet Andrew and to hear from him about his vision for Uniting Churches. It will also be an opportunity for us to raise with him our concerns about insurance.

This is an informal occasion. Andrew is good company and it is very kind of him to make this time to get to know us.

Everyone is invited and we would appreciate a good number of attendees out of respect for the effort he is making on our behalf.

Together Magazine

We would like to be able to share more of the many and varied events and experiences in our Parish with each other through the Together magazine.

Please can you help – we are looking for current events as well as recollections of the past. The events do not need to be organised by the Church, just connected with it whether through Parish members or happenings in our Parish.

If anyone has any stories or photos or ideas of articles we could include in the magazine, please forward them to the KUP office. You can send these on paper, email, phone or in person – they don't need to be polished as the Together editor will be responsible for typing up, proofreading and arranging stories.

Entries can be sent through at any time for inclusion in the next edition or in a specific future edition.

Coastal Villas Worship

Anna will be leading a service in the Leisure Centre at Coastal Villas on the first Thursday of each month for a trial period of 3 months. The service will begin at 10.30. Could you please make this known in the Village community? This service will be open to anyone who wishes to attend.
