Matariki.

“While the celebration of Matariki comes from a Maori perspective, it belongs to all of us.”
Professor Rangi Matamua.

A Matariki Service will be led by the Waikanae Worship Group. Sunday 16 July.

Followed by Matariki Merriment at morning tea time, when there will be a screening of films produced by the Waikanae Golden Oldies Moviemakers. Our church buildings, and members of the congregation appear in the short films. Pizza, popcorn, cans of drink, and other movie treats will be part of the entertainment meets on Tuesday 18 July, 10.30am at the home of Sue and Peter Hodgson, 2 Papawai Grove, Waikanae.

Soup Group

The theme for the gathering is Life is for Living – carrying on from the Living with Change and Possibilities sessions. Hearty winter soup provided for lunch! This group is open to ‘all interested parties’.

Coastal Villas Worship

Anna will be leading a service at Coastal Villas on the third Thursday of each month, first service 20th July, for a trial period of 3 months. The service will begin at 10.30am in the upstairs lounge. Could you please make this known in the Village community. This service will be open to anyone who wishes to attend.

Please note the change of date as Coastal Villas needed to reschedule due to their double booking
