Afternoon Women's Fellowship and anyone interested, are invited to Maureen's house for afternoon tea and a chat next Tuesday 1 February at 2 pm. Maureen Calhaem, 21A Goldsborough Avenue, 299 1903.

Raumati Women's Morning Fellowship: Thursday 10 February at 10 am. Our speaker will be Cheryl Wagener who will talk about and demonstrate some of her products from Nutrimetics. All welcome and welcome back to our members for the New Year.

Lunch after Raumati Combined Service: Everyone is invited to come along for lunch at Ambience Café, 36 Marine Parade on Sunday 13 February, 11.30 am to 1 pm. Please RSVP to Carole Rudings 298 8165 by Friday 11 February, 6 pm.

Raumati Church Gardens: The gardens around the church are maintained by two or three people who typically spend half a day each week, usually on a Thursday, weeding, trimming and generally attempting to make the place look attractive, cared for and welcoming.

Unfortunately, all 2½ of these hardy perennials have been weeded out until perhaps the end of March, so we're in a bit of a hole. Can you fill in for us? This would be mulch appreciated. To find out more and register your excitement or to become a regular helper phone the Lists on 974 1315 or Liz Sutherland on 904 5083.

Self-isolation family plan template: Kia ora everyone. We are encouraging all of NZ to make a self isolation plan and do a little prep for Omnicron now. Regional Public Health have put out this great template on preparing to self-isolate in case you become sick with Covid-19 20211222-covid-prepare-3dhb-plan.pdf \(rph.org.nz\). Wellington Regional Emergency Management Office (WREMO)

Kapiti Community Foodbank: Priority list for the week: pasta sauce, oil, toilet paper and laundry powder. Grocery items can be brought along to church each Sunday. If you wish to make a monetary donation, please visit <https://www.thekapitifoodbank.co.nz/monetary-donations/>. Thank you for your donations.
