Kapiti Community Foodbank: Our shortages this week are a mixed bag - plus we've been unable to order any toilet paper due to the supermarket's short supply. So if you have the capacity, even popping in just one of these items into our foodbins would be hugely appreciated. Cereal, shampoo, conditioner, toilet paper, rice and any lunch box items for the kids. And remember, we accept your excess garden-fresh veges at our new office at 17 Hinemoa Street, Paraparaumu. So why not call in and meet our volunteers. We have food bins located at: Pak 'n Save Kapiti, Paraparaumu Countdown, Kapiti New Worlds and New World Waikanae. Thanks again from the team at the Kapiti Community Foodbank. www.thekapitifoodbank.co.nz

Flatmate wanted: Retired lady seeks a flatmate for her three bedroom property that she is currently renting in Paraparaumu Beach. A retiree or person over 65 would be an ideal flatmate. Cat on the property. Shared expenses such as phone/internet. Please contact the Parish office for contact details.
