Kia ora Parish Friends.

As you know, my wife Joy died five weeks ago.

I am writing this to acknowledge her passing and to give my deepest thanks to many of you, who have, in a multitude of ways, shared my loss and given such generous support to me and my family.

Your thoughtful compassion and aroha have helped us through difficult days.

Reflecting back and re-living your comments and lovely snapshots of Joy's moments with you have been so rewarding. Thank you.

Your koha of maanaki has been generous and honouring and again we thank you.

While life for us has changed dramatically with Joy's passing, knowing of your care and aroha is a rich reminder of the bonds that unite us all.

Blessings and love to you all.

Syd Mepham.
