Women's Fellowship Special Project Services Sunday 17 May

The Waikanae Women's Fellowship will lead worship at 10am on 17 May, with a focus on the National Methodist Women's Fellowship Special Projects for 2026: Starship Foundation and the Tongan Community Trust.

We will have a Soup & Roll lunch afterwards to which all are invited. A donation towards the Special Projects will be very much appreciated.

The Raumati Women's Fellowship is holding their Annual Special Projects Service at 10am. This will be led by The Rev Anna and fellowship members.

This year the New Zealand Project is supporting The Starship hospital in Auckland which cares for critically ill children from all over New Zealand. The international project is supporting the Tonga Community Development Trust with a goal centred around building community resilience and strengthening disaster preparedness in Tongan communities.

Following the service you are invited to a special fund raising morning tea where donations for the two projects will be very gratefully received.

The Coastal Villas church service led by Rev Anna Gilkison, will be at 10.30am on Thursday 21 May. All are welcome to attend.

Waikanae Women's Fellowship will meet on Tuesday 19 May at 10am. Please contact Marie Smith on 04 905 7229 for more information.
