Lenten Study Tuesday afternoons 2.30 pm to 3.30 pm at Raumati. See the March Together for full details. A group of 20 people attended last Tuesday and everyone is invited to join in at anytime for the remaining five weeks.

The Raumati Women's Fellowship meets on Thursday 9 March at 10 am in the upper meeting room. The speaker will be Cheryl Roberts, secretary of the Kapiti Herb Society. All are welcome. Contact Merrill Baker 902 4134 or 027 353 2307.

Parish Office Administrator: Kate has given notice that she wishes to resign from her position. Her last day in the office will be Friday 17 March. Kate is leaving to focus on her family and will still remain an active parish member.

Cyclone Relief Fundraiser, Tuesday 7 March, 7 pm, Raumati Uniting Church. A special 'open rehearsal' evening and impromptu concert to raise funds for those affected by Cyclone Gabrielle is being held by the Kapiti Community Choir. Everyone is warmly invited to come along to hear us rehearse and sing, donate to the fundraising, and show the people in these devastated areas that they are in our thoughts and our hearts www.kapiticommunitychoir.org.nz

Kapiti Community Foodbank Our weekly wishlist: When you are next at the supermarket if you have the capacity to help - please pop any of the following items into your trolley. Toilet paper, shampoo and conditioner, oats, bars of soap, deodorant, breakfast cereals, pasta and instant coffee.

You can either call in and see us at 17 Hinemoa Street, Paraparaumu or drop them into the food bins at participating supermarkets (look for our logo). Supermarkets: Kapiti Pak 'n Save, New World Kapiti, New World Waikanae, and Paraparaumu Countdown. And remember, if your garden is over-running with excess goodies you can also drop these in to us during office hours Mon-Fri 10 am - midday.
