November Together

will be printed next Friday 30 October. Please send in your stories, reports, poems, jokes, photos, reminiscences, and anything else you would like to have included by next Tuesday 27 October.
We really appreciate everyone's contributions, which make our magazine informative and interesting.

Rosters

Our services at United@9, Raumati at 10am and Waikanae at 10am rely on volunteers for their smooth running.
Most of the duties do not take long and are a great help. If you think you would like to try helping as: Door Stewards (greeting people), Readers, or Morning Tea helpers, please let the parish office know, your assistance would be greatly appreciated.

Thrifty Place are in need of more donations, especially: good quality clothes, books, dvds and kitchen goods. If you need help with having your items collected, please contact the parish office.

NZ Methodist Women's Fellowship Council meeting is being held in Te Awamutu 30 October -1 November 2026. Women from around NZ will be attending.

The Kapiti Community Choir are one of our hirers at Raumati and will be singing as part of the Kapiti Arts Trail next weekend at Big Mac Slabs on 31st October at 12 noon, and at Whareroa Farm on 1st November, also at 12 noon.
We will have more information about the choir – including how to join them – in this months Together magazine.
