Update on Parish Market Day - 22 March, 10 am - 1 pm

The convenors/contacts of the stalls are:

Plants: Dianne Boyce

Cakes: Lyn Martin and Alisi Barton

Books: Bill McKeich

Sausage Sizzle: Desmond Corrigan

Thrifty Place: Kay McIntosh

Cafe: Carole Rudings

External Stall Holders/Groups: Jan Rae

Thank you to those of you have offered to help on a stall. Please contact the convenors if you have not put your name down so far and are able to assist on the day. More helpers are required for the cafe please. Thank you.

If you have any surplus small seedling pots, please pass onto Merle Stevenson. If you require pots to pot up seedlings, Robin and Heather List have some available.

Plants and seedlings are very popular at the Market Day, so please start potting them up now. Garden equipment, produce, bunches of flowers and anything garden related are welcome.

Instead of a Garage Sale stall, all second hand items (excluding books, which have their own stall) will be sold inside and outside Thrifty Place.

If you have any large items you would like to donate, please contact Marie Smith who may be able to sell your item on TradeMe or Neighbourly with proceeds going to the church.

Drop off times for goods including books and cakes and baking will be advertised in the March Together and notices. Hold onto all your donations for now please. We will keep you updated right up until Market Day.

Thank you for helping us make Market Day a great success.
