Raumati Women's Fellowship Service

On Sunday 21 May the Raumati Women's Fellowship are having their annual Special Project service. Guest speaker will be Mr Finn Cordwell, Wellington Community Organizer for the Living Wage movement. This will be followed by a special morning tea to which you are all warmly welcomed.

Following the service you are invited to give a donation towards the Special Projects. This year the N.Z. Project is The Living Wage Movement in Aotearoa N.Z. and the overseas Project is supporting the Tongan Community Development Trust to help communities recover from the damage caused by the volcanic eruption, the tsunami and the covid epidemic.

Waikanae Committee

Will meet following morning tea after the service at Waikanae on Sunday 14th May

Waikanae Soup Group

Will meet for discussion and lunch on Tuesday 16 May at 10.30am at the home of Sue and Peter Hodgson, 2 Papawai Grove, Waikanae. The topic for discussion is: "Possibilities" – which follows on from the previous meeting's "Living with change" theme.

This group is open to all who enjoy the free flow of ideas in the context of our Christian faith. A soup and bread rolls lunch is provided.

Thrifty Place

We are short on bags/paper bags to give to customers to carry their purchased items. If you have any, please drop them off to the Thrifty Place or the Parish office. Thank you.

Publications on the Parish Website

The Parish website KUP.org.nz has the current and past Parish Notices and Together magazines. There are also links to publications to read online such as Presbytery Central Roundup, UCANZ, Touchstone and Connexions.

New publications this week are UCANZ newsletter and Presbyterian Central Roundup. If you would like any help with accessing these, or subscribing to receive them directly, then please ask Fiona in the office who is happy to help.

PARISH DIRECTORY

We will be updating the Parish Directory and printing new copies soon. If there are any changes which need to be made to your entry please could you let Fiona in the office know.
